Engaging Students with Powerful Presentations
SAMC + Web/Interactive + Strategy/Design = Max
• First we’ll discuss this thing.
• Then we’ll discuss another thing.
• Next we’ll move onto this other thing.
• Followed by this thing.
• And that thing.
• Another couple more things.
• This thing is important.
• Don’t forget this thing.
• Oh yes, and this thing.
• It’d be a shame to forget this thing.
• And of course this thing.
• But most importantly there is this thing.
• And if you’d like we can talk about this.
• This is another thing.
• I can’t forget to discuss this thing.
• I’m throwing in this thing just because I like it.
• This is a graph, chart or something about a thing.
• This thing will allow me to have more bullets to everything listed.
• I’ll end with this thing.
• Just kidding, one more thing.
Get to the thing
Welcome to UC Davis
HOW TO TALK LIKE TED
1 Passion
Tell stories
Have a conversation
Teach me Something new 4
Jaw-dropping 5 Moment
Our students are great at failure...
This helps them succeed more often.
What, me funny?
Too much?
Be Brief
Multi-sensory
Be Authentic
What you need.
TED.com
Search for “Nancy Duarte”
The secret structure of great talks

Slideshare.net
Search for “Destroy Powerpoint Zombies”