Jean Kang, Content
4th Year, Communication Major

UC Davis has truly opened doors for me. There are myriad great opportunities and resources available on this campus. Though the campus itself is vast, I love how close-knit the Davis community is. The university not only offers a premiere education taught by world-class faculty, but also the campus itself strives to transform lives with innovative thinkers and doers.

This bike-friendly college town provides everything a student could want out of a well-balanced college experience! I strongly encourage students to get involved with student clubs, study abroad and explore their passions with multiple work experiences! College is your playground, Aggies! What do you want to take away from your college experience? GO AGS!

Erin Sayson, Design
4th Year, Design Major

At UC Davis, I have met some of my best friends and some incredible mentors. As an out-of-state student, my choice to come to UC Davis may have been a big one, but it has also been one of my best decisions yet. Through UC Davis, I even secured a full-time graphic design position for after graduation.

I came for a quality education, as well as a chance to compete on the gymnastics team for Davis. Due to injuries, I had to quit, but I’ve been able to get involved in so many other areas on campus. You can always find me around campus, studying at my favorite spots, working, cheering on my Aggies, or even playing a few games of flag football on the grass!

Julie Nguyen, Photography
2nd Year, Exercise Biology Major

I am at UC Davis to challenge myself mentally and socially. In the past year, I have learned about my capabilities to handle school, social life and hobbies, thanks to the guidance of colleagues and professors. Opportunity is everywhere at UC Davis. Opportunity to meet new and interesting people, to learn about advances in society and most importantly, to try new activities. When I came to UC Davis, I knew I wanted to find an internship right away. The amount of jobs available on campus is endless, so finding the right one is easy.

I am a second year and I am using college as a chance to explore my career path. You can catch me taking pictures of various student events around campus or catch me trying to take pictures of squirrels because UC Davis students really like squirrels.
Yiyuan “Sam” Tu
1st Year
Major: Applied Physics
Hometown: Guangzhou, China

What are you involved with?
I’m on the swimming club sport team, which competes against other colleges. We recently competed against UCLA. And I like to work out regularly at the Activities and Recreation Center.

Why did you choose UC Davis?
It’s more like UC Davis chose me because I didn’t have a chance to visit the campus before I came here. The campus is beautiful, and I’ve found it easy to make friends.

What resources do you find helpful?
Even in classes, you can get to know the professors. For instance, when I took Physics 9B, a large lecture class, I went to the professor’s office hours regularly, and he definitely got to know me. We had many insightful conversations.

How has your undergraduate experience been?
UC Davis is an awesome school. The environment is ideal for studying and there are so many activities to choose from.
Kelsey Drain
2nd Year
Major: Animal Science
Hometown: Carpinteria, Calif.

What are you involved with?
I am a hammerthrower on the UC Davis Track and Field team and a member of Athletes in Action, a fellowship group of Christian athletes. I also volunteer with the animal science program, which has given me an opportunity to assist in the birth of various animals.

Why did you choose UC Davis?
I chose UC Davis for the animal science program because it’s one of the best. And when I visited, I fell in love with the campus; the people are so nice, and I knew I didn’t want to go anywhere else.

What do you want to do before you graduate?
I’d like to be an intern at one of the animal facilities on campus through the Barn Residency Program and live at one of the nine animal facilities. I want to attend Picnic Day because it sounds fun to people-watch and see what everyone has produced for the event.

What is your favorite quote?
“For God has not given us a spirit of timidity, but of power, love and self-discipline.” 2 Timothy 1:7
Marina Brown
3rd Year
Major: International Relations and Russian
Hometown: Stockton, Calif.

What are you involved with?
I am in Phi Sigma Pi national honor fraternity, Prytanean women’s honor society, and I’m an alumna of the University of California, Sacramento Center, program.

Why did you choose UC Davis?
I fell in love with this bike-friendly town upon touring UC Davis! Aside from having programs for Russian and international relations, it is safe and a beautiful campus close to home.

What is your favorite place to study?
I like to study at the Art Lounge, second floor of the Memorial Union. I also enjoy getting work done on the fourth floor of Kerr, the IR study lounge. It’s motivating to see distinguished students, awards and books lined up against the wall.

What was your favorite memory from freshman year?
My favorite memory is biking around the whole campus at night when it got noisy and distracting at the dorms. I find it peaceful to step outside when no one is around.
Timothy Tong
3rd Year
Major: Computer Science and Engineering
Hometown: San Ramon, Calif.

What are you involved with?
I belong to the Computer Science Club as a member of the tutoring committee, pragmatic programming committee, and game development committee. I am also an active member of the Badminton Club and Koinonia, a Christian fellowship on campus.

Why did you choose UC Davis?
I chose Davis because a lot of the computer science professors are researching topics I'm interested in.

What are your passions?
I have a passion for developing software tools that people can use to simplify their lives.

What is your life motto?
“And those who were dancing were thought to be insane by those who cannot hear the music.” To follow my passions and dreams no matter what others say.
Ruby Baltazar
4th Year
Major: Civil Engineering
Hometown: Watsonville, Calif.

What are you involved with?
I served as the treasurer for the UC Davis Chicano and Latino Engineers and Scientists Society.

Why did you choose UC Davis?
I chose UC Davis because it is known to have top-rated academic programs, including its engineering school. I found the UC Davis community to be diverse, friendly and welcoming.

What resources did you find helpful?
I was fortunate to have my first community exposure through the Special Transitional Enrichment Program (STEP), which allows students to experience campus life and prepares them for their first year at UC Davis.

How has your undergraduate experience been?
My experience as an undergraduate has been amazing. I made new friends every quarter and always found resources available to me that helped out with my classes.
Get involved and be active! At UC Davis, you likely will discover a club that matches your personal interests. And if you don’t, you can always create one. Explore your passions, develop lifelong friendships, engage in fun activities, connect with like-minded individuals and make a difference in your community.
Associated Students, University of California, Davis (ASUCD)

asucd.ucdavis.edu

ASUCD is the official student government of UC Davis. Run by students, ASUCD creates an outlet for fellow Aggies to voice their opinions. Take part in student government to exercise your leadership abilities and get involved with student advocacy.

Cal Aggie Band-uh!

Recognized as the proudest, most spirited organization on campus, the Cal Aggie Marching Band is committed to supporting athletic teams at UC Davis. This student-run, volunteer organization is the embodiment of Aggie Pride, dedicated to campus spirit and tradition.

Center for Student Involvement (CSI)

csi.ucdavis.edu

At the CSI, students are given valuable resources to help their student clubs operate successfully and enhance their experience on campus. CSI encourages active student involvement by providing opportunities for leadership development, community service, personal growth, cultural diversity and more. Check out CSI for event planning or fundraising tips.
Greek Life: Social/Professional/Pre-Professional
Davis offers nearly 80 active fraternities and sororities on campus. By joining a sorority or fraternity, students can be part of a dynamic brotherhood or sisterhood that extends beyond the college experience. Want to “go Greek”? Be on the look-out for rush events during Recruitment Week at the start of the quarter!

Intramural and Club Sports
Do you have a competitive drive? Want to have fun while meeting new people? Maybe you just want to sharpen your skills or try something new. Whatever the case may be, you can find the perfect sport or club for you! Home to more than 2,500 intramural teams, UC Davis recreational sports range from ultimate frisbee and water polo to softball and basketball.
Community Resource Centers

At UC Davis, there are dynamic community resource centers that cater to your needs and personal interests. At these centers, students can explore their identities as well as myriad opportunities, including employment, academic and social advancement, community service and special programs. Discover what each center can offer you!

Transfer, Reentry and Veterans Center (TRV)
trv.ucdavis.edu
Consider the TRV Center as a home away from home. The center accommodates all transfers, veterans, dependents of veterans and reentry students. Here, students can learn how to adjust to UC Davis life and explore resources available for academic excellence.

Women’s Resources and Research Center (WRRC)
wrrc.ucdavis.edu
The WRRC provides an open space with resources for women to explore their identities and become social advocates within the diverse community. Everyone is welcome to visit the vast library, access support services and take part in sponsored leadership and educational programs! Transfer, Reentry and Veterans Center (TRV)
Interested in getting hands-on research experience at a premier research university? The URC will give you tools and resources to support your research opportunities.
Student Housing

Welcome Aggies! UC Davis strives to create an environment where everyone feels respected and included. With great resources and services geared toward newly admitted freshmen, students are given abundant opportunities that ensure a great first-year experience at UC Davis!
Housing

housing.ucdavis.edu

Residence Halls

• Student Housing operates 17 residence halls in 34 buildings, which are organized into three central areas: Segundo, Tercero and Cuarto.

Student Housing Apartments (SHA)

• To guarantee housing to all students for their first two years at UC Davis, SHA leases space from privately owned and operated apartment complexes. Students get the best of both worlds by living in the Davis community and having access to all residence hall resources!
Campus Eateries

UC Davis provides many delectable food options for hungry students! We provide students the best choices designed for wellness and convenience, without compromising taste.
Dining Commons

dining.ucdavis.edu

UC Davis Dining Services provides one of the nation’s best collegiate residential-area dining programs. Ranked 4th out of 1,300 universities for the healthiest food choices, each of our dining commons is located close to a residence hall area.

Convenience Stores (C-Stores)

There are three C-Stores adjacent to each of the dining commons: the Junction in Segundo, Trudy’s in Tercero and Crossroads in Cuarto. These stores offer snacks, fruit smoothies, freshly packed on-the-go meals and other pick-me-ups!
Student-Run Eating Places

CoHo
Short for Coffee House, the CoHo is one of the most popular eateries on campus and is run by our very own students! Bustling with students throughout the day, favorite choices include a supreme taco salad from TxMx Grill, freshly baked blueberry scones from Swirlz Bakery and a healthy vegetarian Bahn Mi Sandwich from the Grab ‘n’ Go!

CoHo South
Located in the Student Community Center, the CoHo South Café offers coffee, espresso and baked goods that mirror those sold at the CoHo. It also offers a line of unique hot sandwiches and wraps. Don’t miss the Chili Stack: two layers of cornbread smothered by vegetarian chili, topped with grated cheese and freshly chopped onions.

CoHo To Go
CoHo-To-Go sells Coffee House-made Grab ‘n’ Go items under the “CoHo-To-Go” label. The newest addition is a F’real milkshake and smoothie machine, where your flavor of choice is blended to order right before your eyes!

The Corral Store
The Corral is a convenient place to snag your favorite candy, snacks, special gifts and testing materials. The Corral carries a wide selection of gifts from Dakine, Rainbow, Hello Kitty, Earthlust, Fluff, Papaya!, Blue Q and more!
Eating Near the Silo

Silo
Students meet up at the Silo for a quick bite, a freshly brewed coffee at Starbucks, or to just pass some time while cozying up in the top-floor lounge. Enjoy the wide range of food options available at the Silo!

• Star Ginger
  Get your Asian street food fix at Star Ginger. Come by the food truck outside the Silo for a meal on the go.

• Shah’s
  A popular eatery on campus, Shah’s Halal food truck serves Greek and Afghan fusion food. Stop by for a gyro or chicken and lamb over rice.

Also at the Silo:
• La Crepe
• Starbucks
• Harvest Bakery
• Carl’s Junior
• Pizza Hut
• Grab’N’Go

Located in the northwest corner of the Sciences Lab Building, BioBrew is the café of choice for a quick caffeine fix. There you’ll find Starbucks coffee brewing and enjoy freshly baked pastries from Harvest Bakery.
UC Davis Athletics

Cheer on the UC Davis Aggies as they compete against some of the top Division I teams in the country. The Aggies have been featured on ESPN2, competed in NCAA tournaments and we all bleed blue and gold!
